

EVERYTHING IN READINESS

For Pembroke's Annual Horse Show Beginning Next Wednesday Evening.

HOPING FOR GOOD WEATHER.

Only Thing Lacking To Make The Show The Best For Years.

Beginning next Wednesday Sept. 4 the ninth annual Horse Show will be held at Pembroke, evenings only.

All preliminary plans for the event have been given the best attention the officers could give and all that is needed is the stock to show and fair treatment by the weather clerk. If the usual fine exhibits are forthcoming and the weather is favorable, the show will be the finest ever.

For the accommodation of visitors special transportation arrangements have been made. A special train will run from Hopkinsville to Pembroke on Thursday and Friday evenings, leaving Hopkinsville at 7:15 o'clock, arriving there in good time for the horse show, and returning to the city immediately after the show. On Wednesday evening, visitors from Hopkinsville may go to Pembroke on No. 51, which arrives there at 5:57 p. m. and returns on No. 54, which is due here at 10 p. m., and which will stop on account of the horse show.

For the benefit of persons who come from points south of Pembroke plans have been made to have No. 93 stop each night during the horse show. This train is due at 12:07 a. m.

The management has engaged the Third Regiment Band to make music for the occasion, which assures the best of music.

This show is a county enterprise and the people of the whole county, and especially of Hopkinsville, should feel a pride in its increasing success. The Pembroke people work hard to make their annual show a gala occasion and have been greatly discouraged in the past by rains at the wrong time.

INSTITUTE CLOSED.

Most Successful In Every Way From Start To Last.

The County Teachers' Institute, which held its opening session last Monday morning, closed yesterday.

The public meeting Thursday night, though the weather was intensely warm, was largely attended. Prof. Davis A. Clark, Sup't. of City Schools, presided.

The program preceding the readings of Supt. Cassidy, of the Lexington City Schools, was most enjoyable, and consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. Frank Torian; Readings, Miss Mamie Boyd; Piano solo, Miss Clara Bonte; Readings, Miss Virginia Pursley; Vocal solo, Mr. S. Pittus White.

Prof. Cassidy's readings were highly pleasing and placed him in the list of favorite entertainers here. His selections were from Paul Lawrence Dunbar and Joel Chandler Harris. As a dialectician Prof. Cassidy is certainly a true interpreter of the old-time Southern darkey. As an instructor of institutes, he has demonstrated during the sessions of

THE AVALON

Is Approaching Completion and Will Be Great Resort.

Tnos. L. Metcalfe is pushing as rapidly as possible the completion of his new building at Seventh and Liberty streets. As the building more and more assumes proportion it becomes more evident to one not having seen the plans that it will be quite a pretentious thing when completed.

It is due to Mr. Metcalfe to say that the big building is being built more for the public good than for his personal gain. In the first place Mr. Metcalfe has voluntarily donated one room in the building for the use of the Business Men's Association for one year, as an office. The Association accepted Mr. Metcalfe's very liberal offer and entered into a written contract for one year—rent free.

Again, Mr. Metcalfe, anxious that the youth of the city may grow up into strong, stalwart, healthy young men, will devote one large room in the building for a gymnasium.

Third, a large hall on the second floor is to be a free hall for ladies' meetings, local entertainments in the way of concerts, lectures, church fairs, etc. The use of the hall for such purposes will be without cost, Mr. Metcalfe even furnishing the lights and other incidentals.

A man of Mr. Metcalfe's genial disposition, his liberality in every enterprise that demands financial help, and his big heart is only equalled by his desire to do something for everybody. If his pocket book was filled with a half million dollars it would be empty in a few years, and half or more would go to persons needing help in a pecuniary way. In fact, he seems to live for everybody except himself.

He is a self-made man. He grew up here and he loves the town and he does everything he can to help it along in its progress and growth in population. Most assuredly he has helped more people to earn a living than anybody in Hopkinsville. Through the cold of winter and the heat of summer he has given hundreds of people employment when it could not be obtained elsewhere.

Is it any wonder that such a man as this should be popular with everybody? Is it any wonder that from boyhood, almost, he has been successful in business. He is the hardest worker, we honestly believe, in Hopkinsville. From midnight to his breakfast hour is about all the time he claims for his own, and he generally gets beaten out of part of that by some pressing demand.

But the Avalon is a new conception with him. In fact for a year or more it has been like a mirage—plainly to be seen, but not approachable; a dream that repeated itself so often that it seemed to enter into a part of the man's life and urged and urged him onward to realization so persistently that it completely mastered him and he is now awaking to find his dream was not a dream, but a great undertaking for the good of humanity, and it is better to live for others than for self.

All that Mr. Metcalfe asks of an appreciative public is its patronage. Everybody gets full value for what he pays for and all the profit goes into the construction of the Avalon. The Avalon will really be the people's building and everybody should have a brick in it.

the week his eminent fitness for the work. Personally he is a jovial, sociable gentleman and has made many friends during his visit to the rival small city of the State.

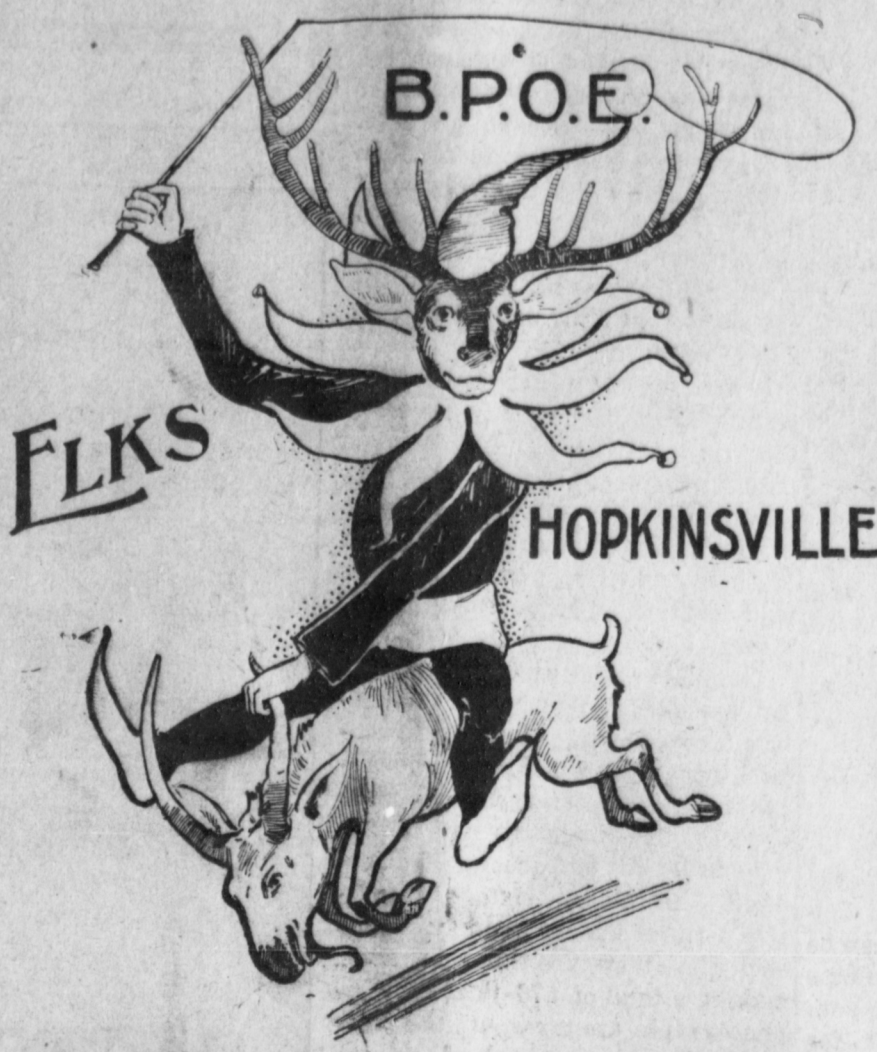

After adopting resolutions of thanks and expressing their appreciation of the efforts of those handling the Institute and taking part in the sessions during the week, the Institute closed yesterday afternoon.

Not So Many.

The Federal census of the negro population of Kentucky shows a decrease during the past twenty years from 268,071 to 261,656 and the number of mulattoes among the negroes increased in that time from 51,986 to 65,943.

ELKS HAVE JOLLY GOOD TIME IN HANDSOME NEW HOME

Called Meeting, Brilliant Dance and Open House By the "Lady Elks" Features of the Three Days' Program.

A-RIDING OF THE ELKS' COAT

A called meeting of Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545 B. P. O. E. was held Thursday night, it being the formal opening of the new Home building. No routine business was attempted. Exalted Ruler Meacham announced the appointment of Gabe Long as Esquire to fill a vacancy.

A proposition to put on a minstrel show, received from the Henderson Lodge, was referred to a committee composed of T. C. Underwood, C. R. Clark and H. W. Linton. After a brief session the Lodge adjourned and a social session was held in the club rooms on the first floor, which was a very delightful affair. C. R. Clark was the orator of the occasion.

About 100 members were present and all were delighted with the new and handsome quarters and a large number of new applications will be presented at the regular meeting Tuesday night.

Yesterday the rules were suspended and visitors were shown through the building by Superintendent Wicks and at night the Elks Dance was given by the young men of the Lodge. This brilliant affair was in progress when the Kentuckian was put to press.

To-day will be Ladies' Day and committees of ladies will keep open house in the forenoon and afternoon and tonight there will be a more general reception, the ladies doing the honors and serving light refreshments.

The building is by far the handsomest lodge building in Western Kentucky. It is situated on a lot 90x100 feet on the corner of Ninth and Water streets, fronting North. The building is 50x100 with a 20-foot yard on both sides, a 10-foot alley in the rear and a broad piazza in the front, the lodge room on the second floor extending to the street line over the porch. The building is brick and stone, two stories high and cost with the lot $30,000. The furnishings are the most elegant that could be procured and the appointments are as nearly perfect as could be planned. The contractors were the Forbes Manufacturing Co. and Shopbell, of Evansville, was the architect.

The present officers of the lodge are:

Chas. M. Meacham, E. R. Hiram Brown, Leading Knight. H. W. Linton, Loyal Knight. T. L. Morrow, Lecturing Knight. T. C. Underwood, Secretary. Bailey Russell, Treasurer. Gabe Long, Esquire. Robert Elder, Inner Guard. E. J. Duncan, Tiler. W. M. Hancock, Sam Frankel and Odie Davis, Trustees. W. R. Wicks, Supt. of Home.

THREE PEOPLE OF HOPKINSVILLE

Injured In Wreck On Illinois Central Thursday Noon.

Princeton, Ky., Aug. 29.—Passenger train No. 302 on the Hopkinsville division of the Illinois Central was derailed at McGowan today at noon. The baggage car left the track and the balance of the train was badly shaken up, causing the injury of several passengers.

The injured were: B. M. Stone, baggage man, bruised about body; Ole O. Kane, postal clerk, cut on the head; Mrs. J. P. Reid, Elkton, slight injury; M. A. Schwab, Memphis, cut on head; G. W. Olmstead, Evansville, slight injury; R. D. Ware, colored, Hopkinsville, back wrenched; Mildred Glenn, colored, Hopkinsville, cut over eye; Lou Taylor, colored, Hopkinsville, cut and bruised.

Nobody Marrying.

County Clerk Stowe hadn't issued a marriage license since last Friday up to yesterday morning.

UNEARTH'S SCHOOL CENSUS PADDING.

Superintendent Hamlett Says Discovery Will Save State $500,000.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 30.—Superintendent of Public Instruction Barksdale Hamlett states that several more cases of padded school censuses have been unearthed in the past few days and that the discovery has saved the State over $200,000 already, and that he believes the total amount ultimately saved will reach $500,000.

Prof. Hamlett says the investigation of these school census frauds developed the fact that dead people, unborn children and people living in other States and foreign countries have been put on the school census returns. He will take steps at once to put each one before the grand jury in the county where the padding was done and the guilty parties will be vigorously prosecuted and sent to the penitentiary, if possible. The school censuses of a number of cities and counties are being investi-

RALLY MONDAY.

County Meeting of Tobacco Growers Called Here.

There will be a rally of tobacco growers at the court house in Hopkinsville on Monday next, at which a number of prominent speakers will deliver addresses in favor of the Planters' Association. All tobacco growers are urged to attend the meeting, as the result of it will have much to do with the future of the organization.

The Pembroke Journal gives the following information which was not furnished to the local papers:

"The meeting to be held at the courthouse Monday is probably the last one that will be held in this county. The books of the association will be closed on September 21, and after that date no more signatures will be received. The future of the organization will be determined by the amount of tobacco which has been pledged by the time the books are closed. If a majority of the growers in each county thus signify their desire that the association continue in business, it will be continued, otherwise it will shut up shop and quit."

An executive session of the county committee was held in Hopkinsville Tuesday, at which General Manager Ewing made a lengthy talk to the members, outlining the policy of the association in the event the growers decide to continue it. In the matter of the independent buyers' who have been knocking for admission, it was decided that none of the tobacco which they now hold should be sold through the association. We learn that James West, who recently became one of the division managers, is the only one of the independent buyers who has been admitted to membership, and his tobacco, said to amount to several thousand hogsheads, will have to find a market elsewhere, as the association officials do not feel that they can afford to accept the prizing methods of the independents. The prizing of the association has been one of its trump cards heretofore, and this is one of the reasons why it does not care to accept tobacco which has not been inspected by its inspectors.

It is said that the independent buyers have lost heavily on their purchases of the past two years and as a result they will be entirely out of the market hereafter. This will leave the trust as the only buyer, and farmers who can recall a few years back understand full well what this means."

gated now and further frauds are expected to develop.

Reports have been received by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction from Logan and Carter counties stating that illegal methods have been indulged in by the school examiners in those counties in holding examinations for State certificates for teachers. A representative from the superintendent's office will be sent to Logan and Carter to investigate the charges.

Labor Day.

Next Monday will be Labor Day, and everybody will go ahead laboring just like any other day. Of course the Post Office and banks will be closed, much to the inconvenience of most people. So many holidays are being crowded into the year's calendar that they are becoming nuisances. With the exception of Washington's birthday, Thanksgiving and Christmas the whole list might well be eliminated in these days of vacation.

Back From The Range.

Col. Jouett Henry, Capt. Chapman, Tandy, Nelson and Capt. Clark with five picked shots of his company, will return to day from Earlington where they participated in the target shooting at the range during the week.

WOODMEN ARE BUSY.

Tents Arrived Thursday And Are Being Put Up Near The Park.

EVERYBODY WILL DECORATE.

Between 300 And 400 Of The Uniform Rank Will Be In The City.

The committee of arrangements has about perfected all its plans for the Woodmen of the World's great demonstration here four days of next week, beginning Tuesday.

The tents arrived Thursday and are being put up in the 5-acre field adjoining the baseball park. Between 300 and 400 of the Uniform Rank of the Order will be here. They will be in regular encampment, cooking on the grounds and living in their tents. But these men will be only a very small part of the crowd during the four days, as Tennessee and Kentucky Woodmen by the thousands who do not belong to the uniform rank will attend the annual meeting.

Thursday will be the day for the big parade. Gov. McCreary, Senator Ollie James and Congressman A. O. Stanley will be here and have places of honor in the parade, headed by the Third Regiment Band. The parade will form at the baseball park at 9 o'clock, and everybody who is planning to join the parade in automobiles or in carriages is requested to report to any member of the local uniform rank.

Citizens are urged to decorate their places of business next Monday, so that all arrangements will be completed the day before the beginning of the encampment. Colors red, white and black and National flags. Committee will meet each train over the three different roads and see that all guests are cared for.

The general headquarters and bureau of information are in the Woodmen's lodge room in the W. T. Cooper building, Main street, opposite the court house.

It is highly probable that the Uniform Rank will attend the Horse Show at Pembroke Friday night.

TODD ACTS

And The Davis Highway Is To Be Pushed.

Paducah, and Calloway county, Marshall and McCracken must be up and stirring or they will be behind the procession in the construction of the Jefferson Davis Highway.

Rush C. Watkins, of Louisville, one of the chief workers in the proposed link to connect West Kentucky with Central and Eastern Kentucky, was in Paducah this week on business, and said that Todd county, which was the chief obstacle in the way of the building of the big pike, has "come across beautifully" and has issued $200,000 in bonds to pay for its portion of the system. Trigg county also has authorized a bond issued of $65,000 and this will put the Highway to the Cumberland river.

From thence, Calloway, Marshall and McCracken are to take up the thread, and when they have finished out the links, there will be a fine system of good roads all the way to Louisville, via Bowling Green, from Paducah.—Paducah Sun.

THE BEST OF ALL

A Peach That Is Not Excelled
For Eating Or Canning.

Some people insist that the "Hopkinsville" peach is the best of all others. That the juicy, sweet freestone fruit will hold its own with all others is an admitted fact. One peculiarity of this peach is that the seed is true to its variety and, it is said by those who ought to know, that it is the only one that will Why no more people have the "Hopkinsville" on their premises is a little strange. Capt. John R. Green at his home on South Main, the seed of which he planted, has a tree loaded down with this peach and they are now ripening. They are full size and finely flavored and it would be hard to find any better than this delicious, old-time fruit, which takes its name from the best town on the map. This peach has done its part in advertising the city, as it is well known in most States in the Union, and its excellencies are equal to any grown anywhere. It is a splendid variety for canning, and as to eating—why, you can just eat all day of them without harmful effects. When thoroughly ripe, mash, put in a dish of sugar, add cream, and if you don't imagine that you are eating what the angels live on you lack appreciation of one of the best things ever given to man.

MERGER

Of L. & N. and Cotton Belt Lines Confirmed.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 28—Allison Mayfield, chairman of the state railroad commission, today said he had advised from Cotton Belt railway officials confirming the report that Louisville & Nashville is completing arrangements to buy the Cotton Belt, and that when the directors of the former road meet in New York Aug. 29 they will close the deal and authorize a bond issue of from $40-000,000 to $60,000,000 to carry out the deal.

The Cotton Belt and Louisville &
Nashville meet each other at Memphis and St. Louis, and while the Cotton Belt is a Gould line, it is regarded as operating independently
from other Gould roads.

This system is composed of the following branches: Stephensville, North and South Texas, Pine Bluff and Arkansas River, Paragould and Southwestern, Eastern Texas railway, St. Louis and Southwestern and St. Louis and Southwestern of Texas. The system's mileage is 1,809.
It is authoritatively reported that after the road is transferred the Cotton Belt will be extended to the gulf
west of New Orleans.

I could not sit up in bed. I suffered from womanly troubles. My nerves were unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of ever being better. I tried Cardui, and it did me more good than anything I had ever taken.
I am better now than I ever expected to be." Thousands of ladies have written similar letters, telling of the merits of Cardui. It relieved their headache, backache and misery,
just as it will relieve yours, if you will let it. Try Cardui.

Moving Pictures.

Gianni Bettini, an Italian inventor, has recently perfected a new device which makes it possible for almost any amateur photographer
to make his own moving pictures.
Not only does the new mechanism bring the cost within the means of the average amateur, but the resulting pictures are actually clearer and sharper than those produced in the ordinary way by the use of a moving film of celluloid.

In accomplishing these astonishing
results Bettini has exactly reversed
the principle of the usual moving picture machine, in which the film travels back of the lens from spool to spool. His photographs are made in series on a glass plate, which is held rigid, while the lens, itself, moves.

The glass plates used in the Bet-tini machine measure eight and one-half inches in length by five and one-half inches in width. The photographs taken in series on this plate are only five-sixteenths of an inch in width by one-quarter inch in depth. In this way sixteen consecutive pictures appear in a line and on each plate there are thirty-six lines, making a total of 576 images. The photographs are taken at the rate of twelve or more a second as the lens travels to and fro.

The cost of a plate of this kind is four cents, while a celluloid film long enough to carry the same number of pictures costs $1.50. The Bettini camera is sold for less than one-third as much as the regular moving picture camera and it is also used,
in connection with an ordinary stereopticon, for reproducing the pictures, thus saving further expense for apparatus.

In the use of the Bettini reproducing apparatus one glass plate may be instantly followed by another, so that a series taking nine minutes
may be displayed without any interruption.

What the phonograph has done to bring music and song into the home, the Bettini machine is expected to do for the historic and interesting scenes of the world.—From "Moving Pictures for the Amateur," in September Technical World Magazine.

CLOWNS FROM 20 NATIONS.

Ringling Brothers Have Fifty
of the World's Best Comedians.

There are clowns from twenty countries among the army of funny men that supplies the comedy portion of Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows. There are madcaps, jesters and fools from the courts of Asiatic potentates. There are buffoons, harlequins and pickleherrings from famous old Drury Lane. There are sky-larkers, punches, chumps and cut-ups from German fete fairs. There are Merry Andrews and Simon Simples from France. There are Jim Crowes and Happy Jocks from America. There are giddy-gads from everywhere.

The program is punctuated with the richest comedy stunts, farces, patonimes and skits. From thrills
the audience is turned to laughter,
and from laughter back to thrills.
In all there are fifty clowns. Each is a pastmaster in the act of making people forget their troubles. They are the creators of all things funny.
They are unctuous and irresistible.
They keep the arena in constant action.

The menagerie has been greatly improved, being practically a complete book of natural history. There are over 1,000 specimens, the majority never before seen in America.
Ninety per cent. of the circus-goers, even in our largest cities, have not so much as heard their names. This circus considers its menagerie not merely a side attraction, but a very important part of the institution, which should constantly be kept up to date by the addition, just as soon as it is discovered, of every creature new to animal life. It is the only show that has its own animal hunters. These fearless men are constantly searching the jungles and the wild spots of the earth for novelties which they invariably secure years before they reach the various European wild animal markets.

This circus does not depend for its menagerie material on the small animal dealers. They have for sale only the ordinary things that can be found in any large city's zoological garden, and which have been hauled around the country by small shows until they have become as familiar to circus-goers as a goat or a raccoon.

Another wonderful menagerie exhibit is Jennie, an elephant 215 years old. She is one of the largest of the herd of forty that stretch out in a line through the center of the tent.
She is also one of the trained elephants. She can use a telephone and beat a bass drum with her tail.

The first known of Jennie is that while George Washington was still the President of the United States she was brought from somewhere in the wilds of India to become an exhibit in the Zoological Gardens at London, England. That was in the spring of 1797. Her age was then estimated at 100 years.

There is a new parade scheduled for the forenoon of show day and a wonderfully attractive program of ring acts, consisting mostly of foreign talent. The performance in the main tent will begin with the newly added spectacle of "Joan of Arc," enacted on a stage bigger than a hundred ordinary theatres and with a cast of 1,200 characters, 600 horses, a ballet of 300 dancing girls, and a trainload of special scenery, costumes and properties.

Matilda Muggins.

Matilda Muggins (may her looks improve!)

Awoke one night from fleeting dreams of love,

And saw, within the moonlight near her bed.

A spirit writing in a book of
In words of flame it wrote, with mien inspired.

"What names are those?" the damsel then inquired.

The spirit, answering, stayed its gleaming pen.

"The maids whose beauty fires the hearts of men."

"And am I one?" she queried. "Nay,
not so," the spirit said.

Matilda spoke more low,
But hopeful still, and begged in accents bland,

"Write me as one that cooks to beat

Hobsonized Ollie.

Senator Ollie James, of Kentucky, received the surprise of his life Thursday night. He attended a performance of "Hanky Panky" at the Broadway Theatre, and was kissed on the bald spot by Florence Moore, who, as Corinda Scribblem, goes down in the audience and does such awful things. "Oh, well," the senator said, "it is not such a hardship to be bald, after all"—New York Correspondence, Cincinnati Enquirer.

Balloonist Drops.

New York, Aug. 28.—Frank Owens was dragged along in a ball on bumping over and against the roofs of large buildings on the Jersey side of the Hudson Monday afternoon until he dropped to the ground fatally injured. His skull was fractured and there is little chance of his recovery.

Current Comment.

President Taft has gone to Beverly, Mass., to spend his last summer vacation as President.

Rosenthal's widow has brought a $100,000 damage suit against Lieut. Chas. Becker for the murder of her husband in New York.

A man found dead at Schenectady, N. Y., nearly two months ago was identified as Wm. Clark, of Elizabeth, N. J., and his sister had the body buried. Now Clark has turned up alive and has reimbursed his sister for the expenses of his burial.

Doesn't Apply to Lock Boxes.

The new Federal law prohibiting delivery of mail Sunday will not, according to Postmaster General Hitchcock, prevent certain holders of lock boxes from getting their mail on the Sabbath.

Another Electrocutation.

Cal. Miracle, the Bell county murderer, will be executed at Eddyville this week.

Three and No More.

After seating three negro lawyers as members, the American Bar Association adopted a resolution that in the future no negro lawyers would be accepted as members of that body.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Back to books, toys, and beat the heat. This may not be good alliteration but the advice is all right.

Some farmers say the tobacco acreage is the largest, but the tobacco is the poorest ever raised. They also assert that the corn crop will be the largest and best ever grown. So the 50 per cent shortage in wheat will not cut such a big figure, after all.

If corn-fed beef are bringing only 7 cents, what reason is there for butchers making the people pay over 15 or 17 cents for it? This is certainly "food for thought."

Tomorrow will be the first day of September, the first month of the oyster season.

The Pembroke Horse Show, which begins next Wednesday, will attract large crowds from the city, if the rains do not, as usual, drown out everything. The Third Regiment Band is to furnish the music.

A. D. Noe & Son, of Hotel Latham, are going to change the electric lights in front of the building on Virginia street.

DeLloyd Thompson, who made so many ascensions with Judge Prowse's aeroplane, has refused to fly in a machine costing $15,000 built specially for the Gordon Bennett race in Chicago September 9th.

Chas. F. Scott, a member of Congress from Kansas, has appointed Phil H. Brown, a colored man, as his assistant chief of publicity among the colored men during the campaign. Brown, while living here several years ago, edited and published a paper for negroes. He was rather self-assertive and did not stand well with his race and his paper was too iconoclastic to suit anybody.

If you have a lock box you can get your mail on Sunday as usual. Under the new postal law postmasters will deliver all letters on Sunday that bear the special delivery stamp.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cornette are back from Cave Spring.

Rev. Geo. C. Abbitt, who spent a good part of his vacation in Louisville, returned home this week.

Mrs. Holt Price, who spent the summer here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Harned, returned to St. Louis yesterday.

Misses Eudora and Laura Wall went to Dawson this week.

Miss Bertie McAllister and her brother, James, went to Bowling Green this week to visit Mrs. E. Hugh Morris.

Miss Louise Wood went to Russellville this week on a visit.

Special delivery stamps cost ten cents each and their more general use will yield the department a large revenue.

Now that the open-air concerts are assured for this year, with a fair outlook for next, that town clock in the big office building is the next thing to be worked out to a certainty. After we get that, there's no telling what may come next—but don't get scared.

In the shop windows—the left overs of summer goods at alluring prices.

Watch for the big bull moose which will (not) head the great street parade Saturday week. He is still in the parade but running for President.

The first sign of fall reached the city Wednesday—the wandering Gypsy and his wagon.

Did you notice how few of the teachers who attended the Institute are men? Don't philosophize about it—teaching seems to be woman's sphere now-a-days.

It might be well for those who go round cussin' everybody while wearing an inch and a-half ribbon around their hats bearing the words in big letters, "Smile, you, smile," to leave the bands at home. There's no telling what may happen if they don't.

Wonder if summer is going to linger in the lap of fall. The high temperature that prevailed this week was a pretty good beginning that way.

Next week will be a busy one here. For instance: The Woodmen from all over this state and Tennessee will be camped here for three days, the big parade will be on Thursday; the circus will be here on Saturday, with another monster parade; the people will attend the Pembroke horse show Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

Ed Schmidt, after a visit to relatives and friends at Church Hill, is back at his place in the harness department of the Planters Hardware Co.

Mrs. G. W. Hogan, of Winchester, Ill., is visiting in the city.

Mrs. George Howell, after a two months visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McPherson, has returned to Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Andrew Almy and sister, Miss Katie Danaher, of Paducah, will return home tomorrow after a weeks visit with relatives here.

Miss Florence Buchanan is spending her vacation with Mrs. W. S. Hancock, near Fairview.

Rev. H. D. Smith, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian church, who had been at Dawson for ten days, returned home Friday, much improved.

Miss Mattie Baker, of Wallonia, returned home yesterday, after a visit to Mrs. H. M. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Johnson, who spent two weeks visiting their son, Dr. H. C. Johnson, Chicago, have returned home.

John R. Green has entirely recovered from his recent illness and goes back to his old place at Frankel's Monday. He has been out of the store for five weeks and would be glad for his customers and friends to call on him.

Declared Off.

The Hopkinsville Business Men's Association had arranged to have Prof. M. A. Scovill be here next Monday. Prof. Scovill was to address the Christian County Crop Improvement Association. After all plans had been perfected Mr. Scovill was taken ill and died. As no one could be procured to take his place the meeting has been declared off. H. B. M. A.

Ripe Tomorrow.

The fall's oyster crop on the Delaware and Maryland coasts will be one of the largest of the last fifty years. The rivers were frozen up for seven weeks last winter, and those who have looked over the beds report that there has been a marvelous growth and that the bivalves are in fine condition for the market. The season opens September 1.

Only $100 Needed.

The Third Regiment Band desires to announce to the public that the fund needed to guarantee the six free band concerts once a week is short about $100 and any one desiring to subscribe to this fund will please see the soliciting committee, namely, J. W. Smith, J. L. Shrode, H. L. Lebkeucher, G. E. Lackey, W. F. Gran, or Dr. R. F. McDaniel, any and amount subscribed will be very much appreciated by the band.

Ninth Street Christian Church.

Services will be held here tomorrow as follows:

Bible School at 9:30 a. m.

The Lord's Supper and preaching at 10:45 a. m.

Preaching and song service at 8:00 p. m.

The pastor will preach at both preaching services. Mr. Robert Wright will have charge of the music of the day. All are heartily invited to attend these services.

Tuberculosis and Pellagra.

Mrs. Birdie Grant, an asylum patient sent here for treatment from Logan county about nine months ago, died Thursday. She had been afflicted with tuberculosis for two years and some months ago pellagra developed. She was 25 years old. The remains were shipped to Dunmore yesterday.

Universalist Church.

Services Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, subject: "Salvation."

J. B. Fosher, Pastor.

Mike Lyons arrived from Atlanta yesterday enroute to his home in Indiana. Mike failed to make good.

Umpire Voss is doing some pretty rotten work in Clarksville if reports are true, giving the Moguls the hot end of his decisions.

Tomorrow the Moguls go to Cairo for the last games of the season.

Goes To New Charge.

Rev. W. E. Mitchell will preach his farewell sermon at the Baptist church at Pembroke tomorrow and will leave next week for Adairville, Ky.

MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY

Tells How She Keeps Her Health—Happiness For Those Who Take Her Advice.

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house."

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has helped her."

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 3.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for woman's ills known.

The September Strand Magazine

The Strand Magazine for September contains a recently discovered story by "Ouida," entitled "The Marriage Plate." This story, we are informed, was written many years ago but for some reason or other was never published. The manuscript remained in the hands of a friend who placed it at the disposal of the Strand Magazine. It is a most characteristic story, which exhibits all "Ouida's" well-known powers of description, and also the passionate love of animals which is so often conspicuous in her writings. The little story might be a companion to "A Dog of Flanders." Other fiction in the September Strand includes stories by E. Temple Thurston, Arthur Morrison, Richard Marsh, Bart Kennedy and other well-known writers. "How Busy Men Work" is an article contributed by John D. Rockefeller, Sir Thomas Lipton, John D. Crimmins, Edward Box, Lord Strathearn and others. A well-illustrated article on the Metropolitan Museum of Art will appeal to all lovers of pictures.

NO CARD PLAYING IN CHILE

Woman Visitor to America From That Country Shocked at the Custom Here.

A woman who is a native of Chile was talking recently about the difficulty she had in accustoming herself to card playing among women when she came to this country.

"In Chile card playing among women is undreamed of. Perhaps it is not too much to say that a Chilean would no more play cards than a New York woman would enter a Broadway saloon. It isn't that it is exactly, or wholly, a matter of morals with us. It just isn't the thing to do. It is not conventional. When I came to New York I brought my daughter-in-law with me, a Chilean girl. She and I were both horribly shocked to receive an invitation to a bridge party in the day time. It was too much for us and we declined," says the New York Post. "Other similar invitations came, and kept coming. Finally, our curiosity got the best of us and we went to one of these affairs. Even after we got over our sense of outraged convention the whole thing seemed curious to us. The funniest sight of all was the women with little tags on them, as if marked by fast express, or running up to another woman with a little card to be 'punched.' Finally, we got sufficiently accustomed to 'take a hand,' but even yet I never do it without a covert feeling that I am putting myself beyond the pale."

HURT HIS FEELINGS

ROOT COTTON FOUND IN ORIENT.

An interesting new tropical product is the "root cotton," described by S. Kusano, a Japanese botanist. It is a fibrous covering of the roots of Fagara integrifolia, an abundant plant of the Philippines, and especially of Botel Tobago, an island near Formosa. The substance seems to be a kind of cork tissue, resembling the ordinary cork developed on the bark of trees. The fibers, of light straw color and silky luster, are very fine, soft, and weak, and are easily pulverized to a waxy powder. They are less hygroscopic than ordinary cotton, having remarkable resistance to wetting by water. In Botel Tobago the natives use the root cotton for calking boats, and in the Philippines it is employed for such purposes as stuffing pillows. Not least of the advantages of this material is the fact that it can be removed without injury to the roots, thus making cultivation simple.

FERTILE NEW ZEALAND.

As showing the wonderful productivity of the soil in some of the localities of New Zealand, one grower recently took 32 cases of Bon Cretien pears off a single tree, while several plum trees actually fell over owing to the enormous weight of fruit the trees were carrying. This is not an isolated case of heavy bearing, as numbers of other growers in the same districts have had similar experiences.

HABITUAL TENDENCY.

"That alienist seems inclined to doubt the mental capacity of a great many people."

"Yes. He not only questions the sanity of every defendant for whom he testifies, but he seems to have a very low opinion of the intelligence of the jury."

DOCTOR QUAYLE'S QUIET HINT

Protracted Session of Well-Meaning Friends Had "Got on the Nerve" of Them All.

Dr. W. A. Quayle, bishop of the Methodist church and a popular lecturer, in the early days of his ministry went back to preach one Sunday to a former congregation in Kansas, and was entertained by one of his old parishioners. After the evening services the family gathered round the hearth and exchanged reminiscences with their guest, apparently without any thought of retiring. Eleven o'clock came and 12 o'clock.

The conversation lagged and all showed unmistakable signs of weariness. Doctor Quayle yawned politely and rubbed his drooping eyelids. His host moved restlessly in his chair. His hostess eyed the timepiece with growing alarm. The very air was drowsy, but no one seemed able to end the awkward situation.

Finally, as the clock chimed 1:30 o'clock, his hostess asked deprecatingly, but with a note of desperation in her voice:

"Brother Quayle, when do you go to bed?"

"When I get a chance," replied Doctor Quayle meekly.

IN LAND OF WHITE NIGHTS

Summer in Finland Just One Long, Uninterrupted Day That Must Be Monotonous.

June is the month of the "white nights" in the north. In Finland one can read a newspaper in the open air at midnight, and the sky is bright with a tender, gentle radiance. There is no break between the sunset and dawn, and the same rosy flush serves for both.

Strictly speaking, summer in Finland is just one long day. The moment the first star glimmers in the south it is a sign that autumn is at hand. The long period of light exercises a marvelous effect upon vegetation and the leaves of trees grow to an enormous size. Up north, the development of plant life is crowded into a few weeks, but it is none the less perfect for that.

Though few people realize it, it is a fact that in June London has only 5½ hours of darkness. Up at Aberdeen in clear nights, there is no darkness, only a kind of twilight. Scottish gardeners, if they wished, could work in the open at midnight, except, perhaps, in the south of our sister country.

SPOILED WEDDING BREAKFAST.

The jealousy of the bridegroom's brother brought a wedding breakfast to a rude termination the other day. It was the marriage day of a couple of Beszterczebanya, a Hungarian village, after an engagement of several years. After they had returned from the ceremony the bridegroom's brother rose at the wedding breakfast, and, after toasting the young couple and wishing them every happiness, declared that he had loved his sister-in-law as long as he had known her, and that he could not bear to see her married to another man. He then shot himself through the head.

THE SUMMER GIRL.

Mayor Bacharach of Atlantic City listened, with a charitable smile, to a dress reformer's condemnation of the 1912 summer girl's attire.

"Well, after all," said the mayor, digging his stick into the white sand, "while it may be true that these things conduce to pneumonia, still let us remember, after all, that Providence tempers the wind to the peck-a-boo blouse, the openwork silk stocking, and the Salome bathing suit."

NOT INQUISITIVE.

"Ever take the trouble to inspect the parts of your car, Willigus?" asked BJones.

"Not since the first time," said Willigus.

"First time?" said BJones. "Why what do you mean?"

"Oh, the first car I had," said Willigus. "I dropped a lighted cigarette in the gasoline tank and I saw all the parts I wanted to in two seconds. Never had any curiosity since."

One of the Number of Metcalfe's Exclusives

This is a cut of Metcalfe's new Prosperity Shaper, which is going such a long way in decreasing the irritation of men folks' necks and tempers, by letting all fold collars be so ironed that tie slides well in collar, and collars are given nice, smooth, oval edge. It is utterly impossible for a collar to crack or break in our laundering process. Our shirt department is one which we feel proud of; not only is work done right, but the shirts are put in Sanitary Covers. Our Dry Cleaning department is in the hands of skilled workmen.

We have flowers for all occasions. Remember that if you buy or contract for $10 worth of coupon books, and take one during August and another when the Avalon is finished, the profits from the business, and more, go into the Avalon, a place of pleasure for Hopkinsville and surrounding country people.

A FINE LINE OF COPY-RIGHTED ART CALENDARS.

The plans for your advertising campaign this year should by all means include a handsome Art Advertising Calendar for 1913. We have secured the exclusive agency for the Copyrighted Calendars produced by the A. M. Collins Mfg. Co., of Philadelphia.

This is one of the largest and most substantial Calendar houses in the United States, and the quality of their line is superior to that of any ever shown in this section.

This line will be handled exclusively by us in Christian and Trigg counties. It includes a great number and variety of subjects in full color, as well as some hand colored pictures of exceptional beauty.

The samples for 1913 will be in our hands shortly, and we shall be glad to show them to you at an early date. MAKE NO PLANS FOR YOUR 1913 CALENDAR UNTIL YOU SEE THIS EXTRAORDINARY LINE. HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN.

AND TEN DAYS IN JAIL.

Moving Picture Show Habitués
Knock Out Of Great Film.

The trial of Clarence Jones, colored, came up before County Judge Knight.

There were two charges against him—one for attempting to hold up Clifton Parker, near Highland Chapel last Saturday night. The other charge was for carrying a concealed deadly weapon. There not being evidence enough to sustain the charge, Attorney John C. Duffy suggested a dismissal of the hold-up charge, which Judge Knight did.

The defendant demanded a jury on the second charge and after it had been secured the trial was begun. After hearing the evidence the jury was given the case. It took but a few minutes to arrive at a verdict, and Jones was fined $25 and ten days in jail for carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

The case of Johnson, alias "Lemon Trice," as first printed, read somewhat like a Wild West storyette, and was as follows:

As Mr. Parker started on his way, the negro accosted him and demanded a ride. On being refused, he covered Mr. Parker with a revolver. The young man struck the negro a stinging blow in the face, and before Trice could use his pistol, Messrs. Quarles and White, hearing the trouble, ran back to the buggy and seized him. Trice was tied securely with a hitch rein, brought to the city and turned over to Jailor Mullins.

But somehow at the crucial moment in the trial of the "Man With a Double Name" the brave men who captured him and delivered him to the authorities couldn't (or didn't) do their part in making good the charge, and a splendid film for showing up a bold highwayman right here at home was lost to the picture show habitués.

Zeke Taylor's Home Run.

With two down, Bachman landed on a beaut and was resting on third when the ball was returned to the diamond. Not to be outclassed Smith lammed the pill, also for a three bagger, scoring Bachman. Hargrove hit a Texas leaguer over second, scoring Smith. Long lanky "Zeke" Taylor came to the plate and bracing his huge form swung like Casey of old, but with more success. His wallop was heard for miles. The sphere started westward toward the sun and before it fell to earth must have shaken hands with old sol, because when Johnson returned it from beyond the race track, "Zeke" had crossed the pan, scoring Hargrove. "Zeke" is some catcher, but slow as an ice wagon. It was worth the price of admission to have witnessed "Zeke" circle the bags. He used every ounce of steam in his make-up and when he crossed the pan, was sporting like a freight engine. Gleaner.

FEELING GOOD.

Second District Congressman
Departs From Capital After Strenuous Session.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Probably few members of Congress left for their homes at the close of the late session so thoroughly delighted over the prospects for a rest on the native heath as is Representative A. O. Stanley, who, somewhat delayed in getting away, left for Kentucky today.

Mr. Stanley in the last fifteen months has made history as the directing head of the Steel Trust Investigating Committee, and his committee has supplied the Democratic party with more campaign thunder than did all the other House investigating committees combined. After fifteen months of this responsible work, Mr. Stanley left for Henderson, his home, today, anticipating a real rest of several weeks and happy over the record that he and his associates made during the session of Congress just closed.
